Emerging Markets ex China Equity Portfolio Management Team Update

On January 1, Babatunde Ojo, CFA has been appointed a portfolio manager of the Emerging Markets ex China Equity strategy. In this role, he will manage a model portfolio to which no client capital is allocated (a “paper portfolio”). Tunde’s deep experience as an analyst and portfolio manager in frontier and emerging markets will make him a valuable contributor to the team. In addition to the EM ex China Equity strategy, Tunde will manage a paper model for the EM Equity strategy. To free his time to focus on his continued role as co-lead PM of the Frontier EM Equity strategy and his new responsibilities, Tunde will step back from his PM role on the International strategy. Rick Schmidt will remain a PM on the EM ex China strategy, while Pradipta Chakraborty and Scott Crawshaw remain co-lead PMs.

Babatunde’s Background

Babatunde Ojo, CFA is a partner of Harding Loevner. He joined the firm in 2012 as an analyst covering Frontier Markets and serves as a co-lead of the Frontier Emerging Markets strategy – roles that he will continue to serve. He previously worked at American Century Investments, Asset & Resource Management, PriceWaterhouseCoopers, and Intercontinental Bank. Mr. Ojo is a graduate of the University of Lagos with a BS in Biochemistry, holds an MSc in Food Chain Management from Imperial College, University of London, as well as an MBA in Finance and Management from The Wharton School and holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA). He has over 18 years of investment experience.
