Global Small Companies Equity Portfolio Management Team Update

On January 1, Anix Vyas, CFA has been appointed a portfolio manager of the Global Small Companies Equity strategy. In this role, he will manage a model portfolio to which no client capital is allocated (a “paper portfolio”). His appointment brings the portfolio management team in line with Harding Loevner’s distinct structure of co-lead and paper PMs providing additional insight signals today and PM succession clarity if needed in the future. Anix serves a co-lead PM of the International Small Companies strategy and as an analyst covering the Industrials and Materials sectors – roles he will continue to serve. Jafar Rizvi and Chris Mack remain co-lead PMs of the Global Small Companies strategy.

Anix’s Background

Anix Vyas, CFA is a partner of Harding Loevner. He joined the firm in 2013 as a research analyst. Currently, Anix serves a co-lead PM of the International Small Companies strategy and as an analyst covering the Industrials and Materials sectors – roles he will continue to serve. Previously, he was a research analyst for three years at Gabelli & Company, a manager of operations and corporate development at Amerigas, and an accountant at Bear, Stearns & Company and The Mony Group. He earned an MBA from the University of Pennsylvania, The Wharton School, and an undergraduate degree in finance and accounting from Fordham University. He has held the Chartered Financial Analyst designation since 2006.
