Lee Gao Named Portfolio Manager of the Emerging Markets Equity Strategy

Lee Gao has been appointed a portfolio manager of the Emerging Markets Equity strategy. In this role, he will share his thinking with the Emerging Markets Equity team by managing a model portfolio to which no client capital is allocated (a “paper portfolio”). He will also continue to serve as a research analyst of emerging markets companies. Emerging Markets Equity co-lead PM assignments are not changing. The addition of portfolio managers to the strategy’s team reflects our ongoing commitment to preparing our rising generation of investment leaders.

Lee’s Background

Lee joined the firm in 2020 as an analyst initially focusing on Chinese companies before more widely covering emerging markets companies, a role that he will continue to serve. He has over 16 years of investment experience, including most recently as a portfolio manager of the Imprint Emerging Markets strategy at Goldman Sachs Asset Management. Before then, Lee worked at Asia equity specialists Joho Capital and Greyson Capital Management, as well as at J.P. Morgan. He is a graduate of Harvard College with an A.B. in Economics.
