International Small Companies Equity Portfolio Management Team Update

On January 1, Chris Mack, CFA has been appointed a portfolio manager of the International Small Companies Equity strategy. In this role, he will manage a model portfolio to which no client capital is allocated (a “paper portfolio”). His appointment brings the portfolio management team in line with Harding Loevner’s distinct structure of co-lead and paper PMs providing additional insight signals today and PM succession clarity if needed in the future. Chris has served a co-lead PM of the Global Small Companies strategy since its 2018 inception and as a paper PM of the Global strategy since 2014. In addition to his PM role for these strategies, Chris will continue to serve as a research analyst covering the Information Technology sector. Jafar Rizvi and Anix Vyas remain co-lead PMs of the International Small Companies strategy.

Chris’s Background

Chris Mack, CFA is a partner of Harding Loevner. He joined the firm in 2004 and has over 19 years of investment experience. Chris is a co-lead PM of the Global Small Companies strategy and a PM of the Global strategy – roles that he will continue to serve. He will also continue to serve as an analyst covering the Information Technology sector. Chris is a graduate of the Lafayette College with a BA in Economics & Business and holds the Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA).
