Investment Objective and Policies

Investment Objective:

The investment objective of the Fund is to achieve long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in frontier emerging markets equities.

Investment Policies:

The Fund seeks to achieve its objective by investing in frontier emerging markets companies that the Investment Manager regards as possessing competitive advantages, capable management, strong financials, and above-average growth potential, and regards as priced by the market below their estimated value. The Investment Manager undertakes in-depth fundamental research to identify companies that meet its quality-growth investment criteria (competitive advantage, quality management, financial strength, and sustainable growth) before making judgments about share prices. The Investment Manager believes up-front business analysis enables it to recognize when transient market misperceptions (eg mispricings) create investment opportunities. It further believes insights gained through the systematic study of individual companies are more valuable and reliable in the long term than forecasts of aggregate stock market directions.

The Fund will invest in freely transferable equities and equity-related securities primarily of issuers based in frontier emerging markets. Frontier emerging markets include countries that are represented in the MSCI Frontier Markets Index or the S&P Frontier Markets BMI, or similar market indices, and the smaller of the traditionally-recognized emerging markets, such as those individually constituting less than 5% of the MSCI Emerging Markets Index or the S&P Emerging Markets BMI. Factors bearing on whether an issuer is considered to be “based” in a frontier emerging market may include: (i) it is legally domiciled in a frontier emerging market; (ii) it conducts at least 50% of its business, as measured by the location of its sales, earnings, assets, or production, in frontier emerging markets; or (iii) it has the principal exchange listing for its securities in a frontier emerging market.

The securities will primarily be common stocks and other securities with equity characteristics, including but not limited to preferred stocks, warrants (not more than 5% of the Fund’s Net Asset Value), rights (which are issued by a company to allow holders to subscribe for additional securities issued by that company), convertible securities, Depository Receipts, equity-linked notes and participatory notes as more particularly set out in the section “Funds” in the Prospectus.

The Fund will invest on a long only basis.

The Fund may also invest (up to 10% of its Net Asset Value) indirectly in such securities through holdings in open-ended collective investment schemes that satisfy Regulation 3(2) of the Regulations which shall be predominantly in the form of exchange traded funds and listed and traded in the US and Europe.

Under normal circumstances at least 80% of the Fund’s net assets will be invested in the foregoing instruments, i.e., freely transferable equities and equity-related securities primarily of issuers based in frontier emerging markets. The Fund will be highly diversified and therefore will not be concentrating on any specific regions or economic sectors. It will pursue a policy of active stock selection in the markets in which it operates.

The Investment Manager has a single research team organized primarily by global sector, in which analysts study companies worldwide that operate within their industry specialties. In addition, it has regional analysts responsible for companies in frontier markets, Japan, and China. This division of responsibilities encourages development of deep expertise in the global competitive dynamics of industries and facilitates collaboration and cross-border comparisons.

Portfolio managers choose among analyst-rated companies—considering both analyst recommendations and impact on portfolio risk—to construct a model portfolio for each strategy. Internal risk-control limits applied to geography, sector, and holding weights ensure diversification. Portfolio managers may sell a stock when it is “crowded out” by a more attractive investment opportunity or the rating is downgraded due to price concerns or deterioration in its fundamentals.

Investment Restrictions

The general investment restrictions set out under the heading FUNDS - Investment Restrictions in the Prospectus shall apply. In addition, the following investment restriction applies to the Fund:

Controversial Weapons

In pursuing its investment objective, the Fund will be prohibited from investing in "controversial weapons", being companies that have any ties to cluster munitions, landmines, biological / chemical weapons, depleted uranium weapons, blinding laser weapons, incendiary weapons, and/or non-detectable fragments.

Borrowings

In accordance with the general provisions set out in the Prospectus under the heading FUNDS - Borrowing and Lending Powers the Fund may borrow up to 10% of its net assets on a temporary basis.

Leverage

It is not intended that the Fund will be leveraged, however, should leverage be generated by the use of financial derivatives instruments it will not exceed 100% of the Net Asset Value of the Fund thus total exposure cannot exceed 200% of Net Asset Value. The market risk of the Fund associated with the use of financial derivative instruments will be measured using the commitment approach in accordance with the requirements of the Central Bank.

Risk Factors

The general risk factors are set out in the Prospectus under the heading RISK FACTORS. In addition, the following risk factors apply to the Fund:

Market Risk

Investments in the Fund may lose value due to a general downturn in stock markets.

Currency Risk

The Base Currency of the Fund is US Dollars. As the Euro, Australian Dollar and Sterling Classes are denominated in a currency other than the Base Currency of the Fund, and as currency conversions will take place on subscriptions, redemptions and distributions at prevailing exchange rates, the Euro, Australian Dollar and Sterling Classes will have a currency risk exposure to US Dollars.

Frontier Emerging Market Risk

Investors in the Fund should be aware of the following additional risks associated with the investment in frontier emerging markets:

- (a) Frontier Emerging Market Securities Risks: Investments in the securities market(s) are subject to the risks pertaining to frontier emerging markets generally. These risks could include the imposition of limits on the holdings of listed securities by foreign investors, and the requirement for foreign investors to maintain a trading account with only one licensed securities company in the relevant market. These may contribute to the illiquidity of the relevant securities market, as well as create inflexibility and uncertainty as to the trading environment.
- (b) Legal and Regulatory Risks: The laws and regulations affecting an investment in securities in frontier emerging markets are often not as well developed and/or established as the laws and regulations of developed countries, may not have been drafted to cover specifically an investment via a fund vehicle, may be drafted in a less concise or otherwise ambiguous manner which could lead to differences in interpretation and, in some countries, may remain untested. Consequently, there may be a lower level of regulatory monitoring of the relevant securities markets than is the case for securities markets in developed countries. Additionally, in the event of a securities-related dispute involving a foreign party, the laws and regulations of these countries would generally apply (unless an applicable international treaty provides otherwise), the court systems of these countries may not be as transparent and effective as court systems in more developed countries, there can be no assurance of obtaining effective enforcement of rights through legal proceedings and the judgments of foreign courts may not be recognised.

- (c) Trading Volumes and Volatility: The securities markets in frontier emerging market countries are often smaller, with lower trading volumes and shorter trading hours than securities markets in developed countries. The market capitalisations of the companies that are listed on frontier emerging markets' securities exchanges are often smaller than those on the primary securities markets of more developed countries. As a consequence, such securities are often materially less liquid, substantially more volatile and subject to significantly greater bid/offer spreads than securities listed on the securities markets in developed countries.
- (d) Foreign Exchange Risk: Some frontier emerging market currencies are controlled. Additionally, there is limited liquidity in the foreign exchange markets for certain frontier emerging market currencies.

Risk Management Process

The Fund employs a Risk Management Process which enables it to accurately measure, monitor and manage the various risks associated with financial derivative instruments and which is available to investors.

Dividend Policy

There are no dividend entitlements for the Shares.

Profile of a Typical Investor

The Fund is suitable for investors seeking capital growth who are prepared to accept a medium to high degree of volatility over a five to seven year market cycle.

Fees and Expenses

Fees of the Manager

The Manager shall be entitled to an annual management fee of up to 0.0125% of the Net Asset Value (the "Management Fee") of the Fund. The Management Fee is based on a sliding scale applied to the aggregate assets across all Sub-Funds, as follows:

Net Asset Value	Management Fee as a % of Net Asset Value of the Company
€0 - €500 Million	0.0125%
€500 Million - €1 Billion	0.0100%

The management fee set out above is subject to an annual minimum fee of €30,000 per Sub-Fund which is subject to a minimum annual relationship fee for the Company of €75,000

The Management Fee shall be subject to the imposition of VAT, if required. The Management Fee will be calculated and accrued daily and is payable monthly in arrears.

The Manager shall be entitled to be reimbursed by the Company out of the assets of the Fund for reasonable out of pocket expenses properly incurred and any VAT on all fees and expenses payable to or by it.

Fees of the Investment Manager

The Investment Manager will be entitled to receive from the Company out of the assets of the Fund an annual fee of 1.15% of the net assets attributable to the Euro Class I Shares, the US Dollar Class I Shares, the Australian Dollar Class I Shares and the Sterling Class I Shares (plus VAT if any). This fee will accrue and be calculated on each Dealing Day and be payable monthly in arrears. The Investment Manager shall also be entitled to be reimbursed out of the assets of the Fund for its reasonable out-of-pocket costs and expenses incurred by the Investment Manager in the performance of its duties. The Investment Manager may, at its absolute discretion, waive any portion of the investment management fee and/or reimburse the Fund for its fees and expenses. The Investment Manager may also, at its absolute discretion, pay any portion of such investment management fee or costs and expenses to any third party in any manner whatsoever, whether by rebate or otherwise.

This section should be read in conjunction with the section entitled Fees and Expenses in the Prospectus.
