

Key Investor Information

This document provides you with key investor information about this Fund. It is not marketing material. The information is required by law to help you understand the nature and the risks of investing in this Fund. You are advised to read it so you can make an informed decision about whether to invest.

The Harding Loevner Frontier Emerging Markets Equity Fund (the "Fund"): US Dollar Class A

The Fund is a sub-fund of Harding Loevner Funds plc (the "Company")

ISIN: IE00B1WL5575

The Company has appointed KBA Consulting Management Limited (the "Manager") as its management company.

Objectives and Investment Policy

The Fund's investment objective is to provide long-term capital appreciation by investing primarily in frontier emerging markets equities. The Fund will invest in stocks and equity related securities, including participatory notes structured as warrants, primarily of issuers based in frontier emerging markets. Frontier emerging markets include countries that are represented in the MSCI Frontier Markets Index or the S&P Frontier Markets BMI, or similar market indices, and the smaller of the traditionally-recognized emerging markets, such as those individually constituting less than 5% of the MSCI Emerging Markets Index or the S&P Emerging Markets BMI.

The Fund will also invest (up to 10% of its assets) in open-ended collective investment schemes which shall be mainly in the form of exchange traded funds and shall be listed and traded in the US and Europe.

Equity related securities include, but are not limited to, common stocks, preferred stocks, warrants, rights, convertible securities, depositary receipts and Structured Financial Instruments. Warrants are securities that give the holder the right to purchase securities from the issuer at a specific price within a certain timeframe. Rights give shareholders in a company the option to purchase new shares issued by that company at a predetermined price in proportion to the number of shares already owned. Convertible securities are securities, usually bonds or preferred shares, that can be converted into common stock. Depositary receipts are financial instruments issued by a bank which provide a return on the shares and stocks they represent. Structured Financial Instruments are highly complex financial instruments offered by financial institutions to companies with very particular financing needs. The Fund will invest only in Structured Financial Instruments which are traded on stock exchanges or regulated markets. The particular Structured Financial Instruments in which the Fund may invest include, but are not limited to, notes whose performance is dependent on the shares and stocks to which they are linked.

Your shares do not pay you income, instead the Fund reinvests income to grow your capital.

You can sell your shares on a daily basis.

The Fund is actively managed by the Investment Manager and has discretion over the composition of its portfolio. The performance of the Fund will be measured against the MSCI Frontier Emerging Markets Index.

- Historical data may not be a reliable indication for the future.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed and may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean 'risk free'.

This Fund is in category 4 because of the medium range and frequency of price movements of the underlying investments of the Fund.

The indicator opposite does not take account of the following risks of investing in the Fund:

Credit and counterparty risk - there is a risk that a counterparty to a derivatives contract may not be able to meet interest, principal or settlement payments or otherwise honour its obligations.

Liquidity risk - it may become difficult to sell the Fund's assets at any given time for a reasonable price.

Market risk - certain stocks may decline in value more than the overall stock market and some markets may become illiquid or highly volatile.

Currency risk - the Fund may invest in securities that are issued in currencies other than the base currency of the fund.

Derivatives risk - the complexity and rapidly changing structure of derivatives markets may increase the possibility of market losses.

The Fund invests in frontier emerging markets which carry higher than average investment risks and the Fund may have problems or delays in having its investments returned when required.

For more information on risks, please see the section entitled 'Risk factors' in the Prospectus.

Practical Information

- The US Dollar Class A has been selected as being representative of Euro Class A (IE00B1WL5468, Accumulating), Australian Dollar Class A (IE00B8HJK162, Accumulating) and Sterling Class A (IE00B1WL5351, Accumulating) shares, and as such separate Key Investor Information has not been prepared for these share classes. For Accumulating share classes, any income from your investments will be reinvested to grow the value of your shares on an annual basis. For Distributing share classes, any income from your investments will be distributed to you on an annual basis (by acquiring additional shares of the relevant class, unless you request otherwise in writing) net of all fees and other expenses.
- Northern Trust Fiduciary Services (Ireland) Limited acts as Depositary to the Fund.
- You should be aware that tax legislation in Ireland (where the fund is authorised) may have an impact on your personal tax position.
- The Manager may be held liable solely on the basis of any statement contained in this document that is misleading, inaccurate, or inconsistent with the relevant parts of the prospectus for the Company.
- The Company has segregated liability between its sub-funds and as such your investment in the Fund will not be affected by claims against any other sub-fund of the Company and any liability incurred on behalf of or attributable to any fund shall be discharged solely out of the assets of that fund. This document relates only to the share class(es) of the Fund referred to herein and not any other share classes that may exist. Subject to any restrictions on the eligibility of investors for a particular share class, a shareholder in the Fund may be able at any time to switch all or some of his/her shares into another class or fund in the Company. Please see the Prospectus for full details.
- Details of the remuneration policy of the Manager is available at www.kbassociates.ie. A paper copy of the remuneration policy will be made available free of charge upon request.
- The Manager is authorised in Ireland and regulated by the Central Bank of Ireland.
